

IPC papers
no. 2

FOUR READINGS on Philippine VALUES

FOURTH EDITION, ENLARGED

Edited by Frank Lynch and Alfonso de Guzman II

Ateneo de Manila University Press

Who is the Filipino?

What values does he hold dear?

In this special issue on values, the IPC Papers presents the insights—some novel revelations, some restatements of feelings and opinions widely shared — of Filipino and foreign scholars engaged in the serious and systematic study of values from various viewpoints:

Frank Lynch reexplores the cultural theme of social acceptance and its operation among Filipinos, reviewing 39 studies that have been undertaken on the subject since 1961. Mary Hollnsteiner discusses the various forms of reciprocity as they are manifested among Filipinos especially in Obando, Bulacan. Jaime Bulatao interprets stories told by Manilaños in a psychological test and shows how these stories reflect values dominant in Filipino society. John Carroll delves into the backgrounds of Filipino entrepreneurs to paint a portrait of these catalysts of social and economic change.

Four Readings on Philippine Values

FOURTH EDITION, ENLARGED

- Frank Lynch • 1 *SOCIAL ACCEPTANCE
RECONSIDERED*
- Mary R. Hollnsteiner • 2 RECIPROCITY IN THE LOWLAND PHILIPPINES
- Jaime C. Bulatao • 3 MANILEÑO'S MAINSPRINGS
- John J. Carroll • 4 *FILIPINO ENTREPRENEURSHIP
IN MANUFACTURING*