

CONTENTS

Foreword /vii

I. MANILA SCAVENGERS: THE STRUGGLE FOR URBAN SURVIVAL

William J. Keyes

Chapters

- 1 Introduction /1
- 2 Profile of the Scavenger /5
- 3 Reviewing the Initial Hypotheses /14
- 4 Recommendations /37

Appendices

- A. Proposed Ordinance Authorizing Scavenging in the City of Manila /45
- B. Ordinance No. 7510 Prohibiting Scavenging /46
- C. Letter of William J. Keyes, S.J. to Manila Mayor Bagatasing Requesting Reconsideration of the Ban on Scavenging /48
- D. Reply of the Manila Mayor's Office to William J. Keyes, S.J., Denying Latter's Request /50
- E. Record of Scavengers Arrests in the City of Manila from December, 1973 to July, 1974 /51
- F. News Item on the Quezon City Garbage Controversy /53

Notes /55

References /56

List of Tables

1. The scavenger's typical daily collection /7
2. A bodega's profit margin on a single cartload of scrap /24
3. A bodega's weekly gross profit margin /25
4. A dealer's daily gross profit margin /28
5. Monthly raw-material inputs for production of chipboard /34
6. Monthly raw-material inputs for production of the "bottom liner" for boxboard /35

Photo Essay /29

II. THE NEIGHBORHOOD SARI-SARI STORE

Simeon G. Silverio, Jr.

Chapters

- 1 The Neighborhood Sari-sari Store /59
- 2 Five Case Histories /64
- 3 The Economic Aspects of the Sari-sari Store /80
- 4 The Social Aspects of the Sari-sari Store /117
- 5 Summary of Findings /127
- 6 Conclusion /131

References /135

List of Tables

1. Number of kinds and/or brands of items in each category of goods sold in the Crisostomo sari-sari store (Caloocan City, 1974) /81
2. Amount of sale for each category of goods as reflected in the diary and as estimated by the Crisostomo store-owner (Caloocan City, 1974) /83
3. Average rate of profit (in percentages) for each of the different categories of goods sold at the Crisostomo sari-sari store based on per unit acquisition cost and selling price (Caloocan City, 1974) /86
4. Daily sale and profit for each category of goods based on the average rate of sale as estimated by the Crisos-

- tomo storeowner (Caloocan City, 1974) /87
5. Ranking of the different categories of items according to percentage of per unit profitability (i.e., average rate of profit), and percentage of daily profit (i.e., based on average rate of sale) (Caloocan City, 1974) /88
 6. Number of kinds and/or brands in each category of food and nonfood items sold at the Crisostomo sari-sari store (Caloocan City, 1974) /89
 7. Amount of sale of food and nonfood items as reflected in the diary and as estimated by the Crisostomo storeowner (Caloocan City, 1974) /90
 8. Number of kinds and/or brands in each category of perishable and nonperishable goods sold at the Crisostomo sari-sari store (Caloocan City, 1974) /91
 9. Amount of sale of perishable and nonperishable goods based on the diary and as estimated by the Crisostomo storeowner (Caloocan City, 1974) /92
 10. Number of kinds and/or brands in each category of essential and supplementary food items sold at the Crisostomo sari-sari store (Caloocan City, 1974) /93
 11. Amount of sale of essential and supplementary food items based on the diary and as estimated by the Crisostomo storeowner (Caloocan City, 1974) /95
 12. Daily transactions in the Crisostomo sari-sari store, classified by amounts involved (Caloocan City, 1974) /96

Photo Essay /133