

Philippine Journal of Psychology

Special Issue on:
Philippine Political and Peace Psychology

Volume 33 Number 2 December 2000

- 1 POLITICAL PSYCHOLOGY IN THE PHILIPPINES: AN UPDATE
Cristina Jayme Montiel
Ma. Elizabeth J. Macapagal
- 33 THE SOCIAL COGNITION OF HUMAN RIGHTS
Ma. Cecilia Gastardo-Conaco
- 48 MANAGING SOCIAL CONFLICT: THE PEACE ZONE EXPERIENCE
Madelene Sta. Maria
- 76 THE CANTOMANYOG ZONE OF PEACE: THE ROLE
OF THE GRASSROOTS CHURCH
IN LOCAL PEACEMAKING
Adelfo V. Briones
- 112 PHILIPPINE POLITICAL CULTURE: A CONCEPTUAL FRAMEWORK
Cristina Jayme Montiel

The Philippine Journal of Psychology thanks the following international reviewers who sent in their comments on the various articles submitted for this issue on Philippine Political and Peace Psychology:

Daniel Christie
Ohio State University

Edward Cairns
University of Ulster at Coleraine

Solveig Hagglund
Goteborg University

Ilse Hakvoort
Goteborg University

Daniel Mayton
Lewis-Clark State College

Allen Tan
Psychological Association of the Philippines

Barbara Tint
Portland State University in Oregon

Ethel Tobach
City University of New York and American Museum of Natural History

Nora Sveaass

University of Oslo

John Paul Szura, O.S.A.
Pax Christi

Michael Wessells
Randolph-Macon College

David Winter
University of Michigan