

PHILIPPINE JOURNAL OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

Volume XVIII

July 1974

Number 3

CONTENTS

|                                                                                                                    | Page                 |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| A Critique of the Psychological Approachto Modernization: Focus onAspirational Levels .....                | Victoria M. Arcega 195      |
| Symbolism, Sterility and Reorganization:The U.S. Experience in Administrativeand Urban Consolidation ..... | John Rehfuss 208            |
| The Muslim Problems and the Government'sResponse .....                                                         | Mohammed Fatthy Mahmoud 215 |
| Reorganization of the Nigerian Federation:Its Background and AdministrativeProblems .....                  | Oyeleye Oyediran 226        |
| The Planning Machinery in Indonesia .....                                                                          | Nimrod Raphaeli 245         |
| Book Reviews:                                                                                                  |                             |
| Towards Integrating Government Tasks .....                                                                         | James Byrne 253             |
| Towards a New Line-Staff Model .....                                                                               | Mary Ann Fernandez 258      |
| News and Notes .....                                                                                               | Azucena T. Miranda 261      |