

PHILIPPINE SOCIOLOGICAL REVIEW

Official Organ of the Philippine Sociological Society

July-October 1957

Contributors	iv
In This Issue	ART v
Metasociology: An Editorial Foreword	AQY 1
The Scope and Field of Sociology	Sister M. Mechtraud 3
On the Scope and Field of Sociology	Genaro V. Ong 6
Comments on "The Scope and Field of Sociology"	Zosimo Ella 8
Some Views of Sociology, Social Sciences and Scientific Objectives: A Selected Compilation and Discussion of Methods, Objectives and Ends of Human Attitudes	Charles O. Houston Jr. 9
Development of Sociology in the Philippines ...	Benicio T. Catapusan 55
The Relation Between Sociology and Social Work	Mother M. Virginia 58
A Note: On the Need for Sociological Studies in Working Out Economic Development Programs in the Philippines	Thomas R. McHale 61
Introduction to the Nature, Scope and Purpose of Industrial Sociology	Elsie Hargreaves 63
The Loon or Fumigation Ceremony in Leyte and Samar	Rev. Richard Arens 69
Book Review: Sociology and Social Living	Review by Fr. Arthur Weiss 73
News and Notes	Ariston Estrada 74

CONTRIBUTORS

Dr. Charles O. Houston is editor of the University of Manila's Journal of East Asiatic Studies. He is also Director of the same university's Graduate Studies and School of Foreign Service.

Sister M. Mechtraud is a consultant at the Our Lady of Peace Guidance Center in Manila and a professor of Sociology and Psychology at the Holy Ghost College. She holds an MA in Psychology, Sociology and Economics from different universities.

Sister Virginia teaches at St. Theresa's College and is moderator of the Catechetical Guild and adviser of the Social Service Club of the same college. She holds a Masters Degree in Sociology from Fordham University.

Genaro Ong is currently the Managing Editor of The Sentinel and Editor-in-Chief of The Catholic Teacher.

Zosimo Ella has written several textbooks for use in elementary and high schools. He has also co-authored a college reference book titled Sociology and Social Living. He teaches in the collegiate departments of San Beda and the University of the East.

Dr. Benicio Catapusan is Executive Secretary of the Association of Christian Schools, member of the Civil Defense Administration, the Court of National Education and UNESCO (Philippines.) He wrote two books now in wide use in local universities, Juvenile Delinquency in the Philippines and Sociology.

Thomas McHale, an economic consultant of Klein & Saks (New York), has just completed a survey on product diversification for the Victorias Milling Company. He has authored "more than a hundred books", mostly on economic development.

Teresa Colayco teaches at the Assumption Convent (Logic and English). She holds a Master Degree in Philosophy from Fordham University.

Angelita Yap was editor of the Assumption Convent's Assumpta. She teaches Sociology both at the Assumption Convent and the Far Eastern University. She holds an MA in Sociology from the Catholic University of America.

Reverend Arthur Weiss. A Jesuit professor connected with the Institute of Social Order. He wrote much and taught much on communism, specifically at the Ateneo Graduate School. Father Weiss was recalled to the United States on August 19, 1957.

PHILIPPINE SOCIOLOGICAL REVIEW

Official Organ of the Philippine Sociological Society

Contributors	iv
In This Issue	ART v
Metasociology: An Editorial Foreword	AQY 1
The Scope and Field of Sociology	Sister M. Mechtraud 3
On the Scope and Field of Sociology	Generao V. Ong 6
Comments on "The Scope and Field of Sociology"	Zosimo Ella 8
Some Views of Sociology, Social Sciences and Scientific Objectives: A Selected Compilation and Discussion of Methods, Objectives and Ends of Human Attitudes	Charles O. Houston Jr. 9
Development of Sociology in the Philippines ...	Benicio T. Catapusan 53
The Relation Between Sociology and Social Work	Mother M. Virginia 58
A Note: On the Need for Sociological Studies in Working Out Economic Development Programs in the Philippines	Thomas R. McHale 61
Introduction to the Nature, Scope and Purpose of Industrial Sociology	Elsie Hargreaves 63
The Loon or Fumigation Ceremony in Leyte and Samar	Rev. Richard Arens 69
Book Review: Sociology and Social Living	Review by Fr. Arthur Weiss 73
News and Notes	Ariston Estrada 74

CONTRIBUTORS

Dr. Charles O. Houston is editor of the University of Manila's Journal of East Asiatic Studies. He is also Director of the same university's Graduate Studies and School of Foreign Service.

Sister M. Mechtraud is a consultant at the Our Lady of Peace Guidance Center in Manila and a professor of Sociology and Psychology at the Holy Ghost College. She holds an MA in Psychology, Sociology and Economics from different universities.

Sister Virginia teaches at St. Theresa's College and is moderator of the Catechetical Guild and adviser of the Social Service Club of the same college. She holds a Masters Degree in Sociology from Fordham University.

Genaro Ong is currently the Managing Editor of The Sentinel and Editor-in-Chief of The Catholic Teacher.

Zosimo Ella has written several textbooks for use in elementary and high schools. He has also co-authored a college reference book titled Sociology and Social Living. He teaches in the collegiate departments of San Beda and the University of the East.

Dr. Benicio Catapusan is Executive Secretary of the Association of Christian Schools, member of the Civil Defense Administration, the Court of National Education and UNESCO (Philippines.) He wrote two books now in wide use in local universities, Juvenile Delinquency in the Philippines and Sociology.

Thomas McHale, an economic consultant of Klein & Saks (New York), has just completed a survey on product diversification for the Victorias Milling Company. He has authored "more than a hundred books", mostly on economic development.

Teresa Colayco teaches at the Assumption Convent (Logic and English). She holds a Master Degree in Philosophy from Fordham University.

Angelita Yap was editor of the Assumption Convent's Assumpta. She teaches Sociology both at the Assumption Convent and the Far Eastern University. She holds an MA in Sociology from the Catholic University of America.

Reverend Arthur Weiss. A Jesuit professor connected with the Institute of Social Order. He wrote much and taught much on communism, specifically at the Ateneo Graduate School. Father Weiss was recalled to the United States on August 19, 1957.