

1898-1992: The Philippine Presidency

Background, Political Influences on, and Administrative Growth of the Philippine Presidency

by Alex B. Brillantes, Jr. and Bienvenida M. Amarles-Ilago

Provides a holistic picture of the evolving institution of the Philippine presidency: in-depth overviews of each of the presidents; analyses of the multiple forces—international and internal as well as their mutual interactions—that impinge on the individual presidents and on the presidency as an institution; and data on the growth of the presidency as seen in size, complexity and budget support to the Office of the President and the Presidential Management Staff.

1994/195 pp/P150 local/US$25 international

Ethics in Politics: Three Lectures

by Jovito R. Salonga

“Lectures on the topic from run-of-the-mill politicians may sound as mere political rhetoric or sheer hypocrisy, but from Salonga, they sound and read credibly.” —Proserpina Domingo Tapales, U.P. College of Public Administration

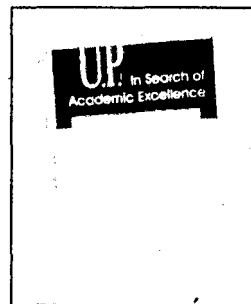

Drawing heavily from his personal recollections, the former senator defines ethics, reflects on the legal and moral dimensions of ethics in politics, and reports on the historic Senate decision of 16 September 1991 on the RP-US Bases Treaty. He caps his discussion of ethical standards for public officials by citing a specific case of conflict between the ombudsman and president.

1994/93 pp/P60 local/US$15 international

U.P. in Search of Academic Excellence

Lectures in Honor of President Jose V. Abueva
Fifteenth President (1987-1993)

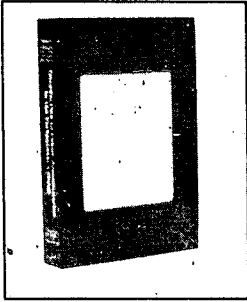

UNIVERSITY OF THE PHILIPPINES

Compiles the lectures delivered during the JVA Lecture Series held from July to September 1993 which was organized jointly by the College of Public Administration, the UP Center for Integrative and Development Studies, the Department of Political Science, and the Balay Kalinaw International House. The lectures are grouped into three clusters: (1) reflections of some of UP's academic leaders on the achievements, problems and prospects of the University as an institution; (2) substantive concerns in the field of economics, law and the possibility of creating a space for the Filipino mind within the English language; and (3) the concrete contributions of academic work to society.

1994/236 pp/P175 local/US$25 international

Introduction to Public Administration in the Philippines: A Reader

edited by V.A. Bautista, M.C.P. Alfiler, D.R. Reyes, & P.D. Tapales

"Introduction to Public Administration in the Philippines: A Reader evidences the growth and development of the theory and practice of public administration in the Philippine setting." —

Tomas A. Sajo, College of Management, U.P. Visayas

Contains informative and incisive articles on the definition and scope of the study of public administration in the Philippines, theories of bureaucracy and management, development and development administration, processes in public administration, selected strategies in public administration and public service values.

1993/628 pp/P300 (bookpaper), P170 (newsprint) local/US$40 (bookpaper), US$30 (newsprint) international

Bureaucracy for Democracy

The Dynamics of Executive-Bureaucracy Interaction During Governmental Transitions

by Ledivina V. Cariño

"Well-conceived, systematized, theoretically expounded, based upon cross-national experiences and details" —R.N. Thakur, Indian Institute of Public Administration

Focuses on the interaction of the executive and the bureaucracy in the light of the Philippine experience over time and compares and contrasts this experience with those of other countries undergoing normal and abnormal successions. Puts into perspective the executive-bureaucracy struggles that take place under different systems of government and during changes of government as well as the relationships of the executive and the bureaucracy in relation to democratic struggle.

1992 (1994, reprint)/198 pp/P150 local/US$25 international

Send your orders to: U.P. Public Administration Research and Extension Services Foundation, Inc. (UPPAF)
c/o College of Public Administration
University of the Philippines
P.O. Box 198, UP-Campus
Diliman, Quezon City 1101 PHILIPPINES

Or call: Tel. (632)995-411; Fax (632)993-861