WELCOME ADDRESS PSS National Convention, Iloilo City

LOURDES R. QUISUMBING
Dean, Graduate School of Education
De La Salle University

"How pleasant it is when friends come together." I should like to apply these words from the Chinese sage Confucius to this occasion. How pleasant and gratifying it is when social scientists, students deeply interested in Philippine society, members and friends of the PSS come together in the spirit of true professionalism to share, exchange and discuss theories, questions, problems, findings and insights from various areas within their disciplines in order to address themselves towards socially sound and socially committed development policies and programs.

The theme of the 1977 PSS National Convention, "The Use (and Misuse) of Social Science Research in Policy Making and Program Planning," points out the need of providing theoretical and methodological perspectives, of
